

POSSESSION OF MOBILES IN EXAM IS UFM PRACTICE.

Name Deva

Enrollment No. 37

Jaypee Institute of Information Technology, Noida

Mid Semester Examination, 2024

B.Tech., V Semester

Course Title: Indian Constitution & Traditional Knowledge

Maximum Time: 1hr

Course Code: 20B13HS311

Maximum Marks: 30

CO1	Develop an understanding of the historical background of the constitution, its salient features, fundamental duties and directive principles of the state policy.
CO2	Apply the traditional theories of Indian traditional political thought to the contemporary working of the state and its governance structures.
CO3	Analyse the working of Indian federalism with reference to centre-state relations and cooperative federalism.
CO4	Evaluate nature and working of the different organs of government.

Note: Attempt all the questions.

Q1. "While the fundamental rights constitute limitations upon State action, the Directive Principles are instruments of instruction to the government to do certain things and to achieve ends by their actions". In light of this statement, compare and contrast Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy. [CO1 (Understanding), 5Marks]

write the table

①

Q2. Explain the type of writs and their importance in the Constitution to India to uphold the Fundamental Rights. [CO1 (Understanding), 5Marks]

Habeas corpus, etc

ordinance promulgation

Q3. Evaluate the ordinance-making power as vested in the President of India.

[CO4 (Evaluating), 5Marks]

Q4. What were the key recommendations of the Swaran Singh Committee on Fundamental Duties? Which of the Swaran Singh Committee's recommendations were not accepted by the government? [CO1 (Understanding), 5Marks]

3 FD's

②

Q5. Write short notes the following: [CO1 (Understanding), 5Marks]

a. Judicial Activism

Do, SC, etc

b. Quasi-Federation

Federation with unitary system

③

Q6. Critically evaluate the Constitutional position of the Governor and how it differs from the President. [CO4 (Evaluating), 5Marks]

compare with former powers & functions

②